Doctors Purcell and Olcott, and M. G. Sumaniego returned from a week's trip to Mount Lemon, they went up by Webber's trail, and returned via Oracle and Sumaniego's ranch. They report the weather at mount Lemon very cool, so cool indeed, that they had to make a fire at two o'clock in the morning in their cabins to keep warm. The forests are grand, and seem to be almost impenetrable in extent, everything is inviting to those who love mountain life, and wild impressive scenery of mountain and forest. There has been an abundant rainfall, which has given as a result abundant pasturage. It is not difficult to reach Mount Lemon over the trail for those who enjoy riding horseback. The physicians believe this mountain resort is an ideal summer and health location. It is to be hoped that steps will soon be taken to establish a regular sanitarium at that place or the vicinity. The fact is there is a dozen locations where resorts can, and will sooner or later be planted.—Tucson Star.
